Summary: Melodrama/mystery set in southern Vietnam in the 1980s. Mrs. Hoai Thu is found dead of mysterious causes in her villa. During the American war she worked as an interpreter and bore a son by an African American father. In shame she exchanged the mixed-race child for a Vietnamese baby at birth. Years later the boy, Sinh, learned the truth, ran away from home and become a vagrant. Arrested by the police, he informed them of Mrs. Hoai Thu’s crimes. In the end it is learned that Hoai Thu died of heart disease.
