B5700 BLANC DE CHINE (FRANCE, 1988)
(Other titles: China white)

Credits: director, Denys Granier-Deferre; writers, Denys Granier Deferre, Yves Stavrides.
Cast: Robin Renucci, Michel Piccoli, Marguerite Tran.
Summary: Thriller set in Paris and Hong Kong in the 1980s. Mathieu (Renucci), a Frenchman who had a paper marriage to Jay (Tran), a seven-year-old Vietnamese girl during the 1975 fall of Saigon in order to help her escape, is recruited by the French secret service to help put an end to escalating violence between the Chinese and Vietnamese communities in Paris in which the teenage Jay is now involved. It all turns out to be a CIA plot.