Credits: director, John Wintergate; writer, Jonema.
Cast: Hawk Audley, Kalassu, Alexandre Day.
Summary: Horror film set in contemporary Los Angeles. Professor Audley and his wife, Nobel prize winners for research in the occult and telekinesis, were killed by their daughter who is now haunting her former home which has been turned into a boardinghouse. Jim (Audley), the new owner of the place, is a limping, peeping-Tom, Vietnam vet. He rents rooms to attractive young women and is the prime suspect when they are picked off.

Weldon, Michael. The psychotronic video guide New York: St. Martin’s Griffin, 1996. (p. 69)