B6220 BOBBY (USA, 2006)

Credits: director/ writer, Emilio Estevez.

Summary: Historical melodrama set on June 5, 1968 chiefly in the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles on the night Robert F. Kennedy was assassinated there. The film follows hotel staff and guests as they live out private dramas on the fateful day. The script was written before 9/11 but has insights on the ongoing Vietnam War, racial conflict and class relations that are topical in 2006.

Crust, Kevin. “Movie review; Ambition takes Estevez’s ‘Bobby’ only so far” Los Angeles times (Nov 17, 2006), Calendar desk, Part E, p. 10.
Fernandez, Jay A. “The envelope; No need to adapt; Powerful original screenplays are plentiful this Oscar season. Why has it taken so long?” Los Angeles times (Nov 22, 2006), p. S4.
Lawson, Terry. “‘Bobby’ is a labor of love: Hotel was catalyst for Estevez film” Detroit free press [reprinted in Knight Ridder Tribune business news, ProQuest database] (Nov 21, 2006)
__________. “Film comes from the heart: Estevez crafts ‘Bobby’ with care” Detroit free press [reprinted in Knight Ridder Tribune business news, ProQuest database] (Nov 22, 2006)
Lovell, Glenn. “Campaigning for ‘Bobby’: Emilio Estevez had a long road finding backers for RFK film” San Jose mercury news [reprinted in Knight Ridder Tribune business news, ProQuest database] (Nov 20, 2006)
Ridley, Jim. “The whole world in his hands; In this star-studded piece of hero porn Emilio Estevez blames the ills of the world on RFK’s murder, but what about the man?” East Bay express [California] (Nov 15, 2006), p. 7.
Scott, A. O. “The way we were, way back in June of ’68” New York times (Nov 17, 2006), p. 12.
Strickler, Jeff. “Movie review: ‘Bobby’ compels while it teaches” Star tribune [Minneapolis MN] [reprinted in Knight Ridder Tribune business news, ProQuest database] (Nov 22, 2006)
Toto, Christian. “‘Bobby’ tells the nation more than RFK; Story line focusing on others caught up in drama plays well” Washington times (Nov 22, 2006), p. D1.
Van Beurden-Doust, Larissa. “‘Bobby’ history and her story” The tribune [San Luis Obispo, CA] [reprinted in Knight Ridder Tribune business news, ProQuest database] (Nov 22, 2006)
Welkos, Robert W. “A long shadow; Producer Edward Bass offers to take his name off ‘Bobby’ as his past, and present, could muddy the waters for the star-packed picture” Los Angeles times (Oct 17, 2006), Calendar, p. E1.

c2007 J.K.M. Enterprises