Credits: director/writer, Bill Berry; story, Ronald Goldman.

Cast: Michael Hodge, Ron David, Rick Ellis, Brian Donohue.

Summary: Blaxploitation/action film set in the contemporary US South. Black Vietnam vets return to Kincaid County in the deep South and discover nothing has improved in their racially intolerant hometown. When the United Klan of America burns a black church, the brotherhood led by the ex-soldiers fights back.

Hill, George H. (see under Parrish, James Robert)

Parish, James Robert and Hill, George H. Black action films [GB] (p. 71-2)

Weldon, Michael. The psychotronic video guide New York: St. Martin’s Griffin, 1996. (p. 80)