Credits: director, Julien Temple; writer, Bruce Rubenstein, Sir Eddie Cook.
Cast: Mickey Rourke, Tupac Shakur, Ted Levine, Adrien Brody.
Summary: Thriller/crime drama set in contemporary Brooklyn. Butch (Rourke) is a hardened criminal and drug addict just released from jail. He is quickly engaged in criminal activities, shooting heroin and snorting coke, and feuding with street-gang leader Tank (Shakur). Butch lives with his elderly Jewish parents, a kid brother, and older brother Louis (Levine) who is a deranged Vietnam vet. In one scene Louis instructs young boys in the art of warfare and how to cut a man's throat.