C2540 CANNIBALS IN THE STREETS  (ITALY/SPAIN, 1980)
(Other titles: Apocalypse domani; Cannibali in cita; Cannibals in the city; Invasion of the flesh hunters; Savage apocalypse; The slaughterers; Virus)

Cast: John Saxon, Elizabeth Turner, John Morghen.
Summary: Horror film set in contemporary Atlanta, Ga. Norman Hooper (Saxon) is a Vietnam vet and ex-Green Beret commander. While in Vietnam, Norman and his men were infected by a sort of rabies virus which has turned them into cannibals. Norman is able to resist the disease but his men spend their time chewing their way thru the residents of Atlanta until local authorities are able to corner them in a sewer and finish them off.

Kern, Louis J. “MIAs, myth and macho-magic: post-apocalyptic cinematic visions of Vietnam” [GB]
Williams, Tony. “Apocalypse domain” in Viet Nam war films II (edited by Jean-Jacques Malo and Tony Williams) [GB]