Summary: Tongue-in-cheek motorcycle gang/adventure film set in contemporary Arizona. The film opens with a battle between "V.C." and Americans which turns out to be a training exercise organized by Mitch (Young), a Vietnam veteran Green Beret sergeant. When Mitch learns that his fiancée has been killed in a car crash caused by a motorcycle gang called the Wizards, he enlists three Green Beret buddies to infiltrate the gang and identify the gang members responsible for the crash. The gang suspects Mitch and beats him up, but his buddies come to the rescue. The gang hides out in the Superstition Mountains, but the Green Berets corner them, capture them and bring them to justice.
