C4690  CINQ GARS POUR SINGAPOUR  (FRANCE/ITALY, 1967)
(Other titles: Cinq marines pour Singapore; Five ashore for Singapore; Singapore, Singapore)

Credits: director, Bernard Toublanc-Michel; writers, Bernard T. Michel, Pierre Kalfon; novel, Jean Bruce.
Cast: Sean Flynn, Marika Green, Terry Downes, Marc Michel.
Summary: Action/adventure film set in contemporary Hong Kong. American Marines have been disappearing in Hong Kong. A CIA agent and four Marines are sent out to find out why. They discover a madman with a Harvard education is keeping the Americans frozen for brainwashing and then resale to China or perhaps the Viet Cong.

Moskowitz, Gene (Mosk.). “Cinq gars pour Singapour (Five ashore for Singapore)”
Muse, Eben J. The land of Nam : the Vietnam war in American film [GB] (p. 32)