E2695  EASTERN CONDORS  (HONG KONG, 1986)
(Other titles: Dong fang tu ying; Dung fong tuk ying; Tung fang tu ying)

Credits: director, Samo Hung; writer, unknown.
Cast: Samo Hung, Haing S. Ngor.
Summary: War film set during the fall of the Saigon government in 1975. A group of Chinese convicts are recruited to carry out a dangerous mission for the Americans in Vietnam. They are to destroy a supply base in the jungle and any of the convicts who survive will be freed from prison. The director (Hung) also stars as the leader of the convicts, a sort of Chinese Rambo. The story line was borrowed from many sources, including The Dirty Dozen.

Li, Ching-Jung and Williams, Tony. “Eastern condors” in Viet Nam war films II (edited by Jean-Jacques Malo and Tony Williams) [GB]
Logan, Bey. Hong Kong action cinema Woodstock, N.Y. : Overlook Press, 1996. (p. 88-97+)
Williams, Tony. “Eastern condors” Vietnam war films [GB] (Entry 167) ___________. (see also under Li, Ching-Jung)