E6950 ERIK (CANADA, 1989)
(Other titles: One man out)

Credits: director/ writer, Michael Kennedy.
Summary: Action/ adventure film set in a contemporary unnamed South American country. Erik (McHattie) is an ex-CIA agent and Vietnam vet who suffers from PTSD but has become a hit-man for a South American general. He assassinates anyone who threatens the general’s dictatorship. Unfortunately, he falls in love with a woman journalist who has rebel connections. The general orders her killed, but Erik discovers his conscience and attempts to rescue her.