F5470 FINDERS KEEBERS (USA, 1984)
(Other titles: Cash, cash)

Credits: director, Richard Lester; writers, Ronny Graham, Terence Marsh, Charles Dennis.

Cast: Michael O'Keefe, Beverly D'Angelo, Louis Gossett, Jr.

Summary: Comedy film set in the U.S. in 1973. A farce involving stolen money, con artists in disguise, a bungling hit-man, and more. Mistaken for a deserter, Michael Rangeloff (O'Keefe) masquerades as the military escort for the body of a serviceman being sent home from Vietnam for burial, but the coffin actually contains $5 million in stolen money.

Blowen, Michael. “Reviews/Movies: Finders’ isn’t funny” Boston globe (May 19, 1984), Arts/Films, p. ?
Cosford, Bill. “Finders’ is worth keeping” Miami herald (May 24, 1984), p. 1B.
[Finders keepers] [Lester interview] Screen international n. 483 (Feb 9, 1985), p. 12.
Walker, Mark Edward. “Finders keepers” Vietnam war feature filmography (1992 draft) [GB] (p. 146-7) and Vietnam war films [GB] (Entry 202)
Vietnam veteran films [GB] (p. 111)