Credits: director, Luis Valdez; writer, C.J. Charles.
Cast: Charles Haid, Anne E. Curry, Anne Haney.
Summary: Comedy/melodrama set in contemporary Los Angeles. Iowa farmer Dwight Perry (Haid) inherits a run-down L.A. bungalow court known as Court Figueroa from an uncle. The tenants include a Latino family, a group of musicians, and a Vietnamese family. Culture conflicts ensue.