F8170  FU SHI LEAN QU  (HONG KONG, 1990)
(Other titles: Fau sai luen kuk; Fou shi lean qu; Fu shih lean chu; To Liv(e))

Credits:  director/writer, Evans Chan.
Cast:  Lindzay Chan, Josephine Ku, Wong Yiu Ming.
Summary:  Melodrama set in Hong Kong in 1990. Prompted by Liv Ullmann’s 1990 public condemnation of Hong Kong for expelling Vietnamese refugees. Focusing on a young magazine editor (Chan) and her relationships with family and boyfriend, the film examines the strains put on Hong Kong society by the Tiananmen Square massacre and the pending reversion to Chinese rule in 1997.

Williams, Tony, “Representations of the Vietnamese in 80s and 90s Hong Kong cinema” [GB] (p. 6-11)