Summary: Melodrama set in South Korea in 1979. Pulp fiction writer Han Kiju has never recovered from his youthful experience as a volunteer infantryman who fought in the Korean White Horse Division alongside American troops in Vietnam. The burden of guilt and alienation have a deep effect on his career and marriage and a meeting with a deranged soldier he knew in Vietnam forces Han to confront the past and the most painful events of his life. Using flashbacks to Vietnam, the film depicts Sgt. Han’s platoon fighting an unseen Viet Cong enemy during a long range reconnaissance mission.
