H5980 HIT! (USA, 1973)

Credits: director, Sidney J. Furie ; writers, Alan B. Trustman, David M. Wolf.

Cast: Billy Dee Williams, Richard Prior, Paul Hampton, Gwen Welles.

Summary: Revenge caper film set in contemporary British Columbia and Marseilles. U.S. agent Nick Allen (Williams) locates and trains a dirty half-dozen recruits for a commando raid on the kingpins of a French drug syndicate whom he believes are responsible for the drug-related death of his teenaged daughter. One of the group, Barry Strong (Hampton), is a Vietnam veteran who got rich on the drug trade overseas and is blackmailed by Allen into cooperating in the raid. After training in a deserted village in British Columbia, the team infiltrates Marseille and destroys the syndicate.

Bogle, Donald. Blacks in American film and television: an encyclopedia [GB] (p. 106-7)
Farber, Stephen. “Isn’t it enough to show murder—must we celebrate it?” New York times 123 (Oct 21, 1973), sec. 2, p. 13+
Hill, George H. (see under Parish, James Robert)
Parish, James Robert and Hill, George H. Black action films [GB] (p. 164-66)