H6325 HOLLOW POINT (USA, 1995)

Credits: director, Sidney J. Furie; writer, Robert Geoffrion.
Cast: Thomas Ian Griffith, Tia Carrere, John Lithgow, Donald Sutherland.
Summary: Action/adventure/gangster film set in the contemporary U.S. An international crime syndicate led by the devilishly clever Livingston (Lithgow) is planning one last caper in the U.S. before they move their operations overseas. Two U.S. agents stand in the way: FBI agent Norwood (Carrere) and her rival, DEA agent Max Parish (Griffith). Their competition has grown so fierce it has crippled their investigations. When Livingston’s top assassin (Sutherland) murders a friend of Norwood, she vows to hunt him down, but Parrish needs the assassin alive to convict Livingston. Betrayed by his boss, the assassin is looking for his own revenge and ends up working with the two agents to bring down Livingston. The association between the assassin and Livingston goes back to Vietnam where he served under the command of then Colonel Livingston.