Series summary: Anthology of dramatic vignettes depicting incidents in the lives of guests at the St. Gregory Hotel in San Francisco. Peter McDermott (James Brolin) is the hotel manager.

Heroes (2/26/1986)

Credits: director, unknown; writer, Steven Phillip Smith.
Cast: James Brolin, Michael Moriarty, Haing S. Ngor, Nana Visitor, Kieu Chinh.

Summary: Peter McDermott’s old buddy, Brad Carlton (Moriarty), a former Vietnam POW, recognizes a hotel waiter, Duong Thanh (Ngor), as one of his prison camp tormentors. When Brad’s wife Wendy (Visitor) finds her husband fashioning a bamboo whip, she asks for Peter’s help. After talking to Mrs. Thanh (Chinh), Wendy learns that Thanh’s cruelty stemmed from his parents’ death in a bombing raid. Thanh goes to Brad’s room, removes his shirt and hands the whip to Brad. Brad’s anger, however, turns to those who sent him to war. Warned by Mrs. Thanh, Peter races to the room to find that the two men have made peace.

Smith, Steven Phillip. Heroes. [script] (51 p.) [Annenberg Script Archive number HOTEL070]