Series summary: Detective/mystery series set in contemporary San Francisco. Robert T. Ironside (Burr) was Chief of Detectives for the S.F.P.D. when an assassin’s bullet shattered his spine, leaving him confined to a wheelchair. He continues his crusade against crime as a special consultant to the Dept. with a team of special agents assigned to his control.

And then there was one (1/20/1972)

Credits: director, unknown; writer, unknown.
Cast: Raymond Burr, Percy Rodriguez, Scott Hylands.
Summary: When a gas station run by two Vietnam veterans (one white, one black) suffers a grenade attack, Ironside examines the racial and military implications of the crime.

The hidden man (11/29/1973)

Credits: director, unknown; writer, unknown.
Cast: Raymond Burr, Cliff Potts.
Summary: A traumatized Vietnam veteran is convinced he has seen his supposedly dead father.

No game for amateurs (9/24/1970)

Credits: director, unknown; writer, unknown.
Cast: Raymond Burr, Martin Sheen, Tony Brande.
Summary: A mob hitman strikes using a pregnant woman for cover, and then poses as a draft dodger in order to gain access to an underground escape route for opponents of the Vietnam War.