L2695 THE LAST HIT (USA, 3/31/1993) [TV]

Credits: director, Jan Egleson; writers, Walter Klenhard, Alan Sharp; book, Patrick Ruell.
Summary: Thriller set in contemporary New Mexico. Michael Grant (Brown) is an Australian Vietnam vet employed as a CIA hit-man. He is assigned by his CIA handler (Von Bargen) to kill a man in New Mexico, but has tired of killing and refuses the assignment. Instead, he falls in love with the target’s daughter (Adams) and becomes a target himself, for his CIA handler is actually the woman’s brother-in-law and is intent on taking revenge on the woman and her father for what he believes was their murder of his brother.
