L2830  THE LATE LIZ  (USA, 1972)

Credits: director, Don Ross ; writer, Bill Rega ; book, Gert Behanna.
Cast: Anne Baxter, Steve Forrest, Bill Katt, Reid Smith, Jack Albertson.
Summary: Melodrama set in the contemporary U.S. Liz Addams (Baxter) is an upper middle class alcoholic with self esteem problems. She had sought fulfillment in drinking, bad marriages and suicide attempts. At the suggestion of one of her sons, she tries religion. Both Liz’s sons, Peter (Katt) and Alan (Smith), are Vietnam veterans as is Dr. James Hatch (Forrest), the man who becomes her third husband.

_________________. The representation of the Vietnam veteran in American narrative film [GB]