L3870  LETTRES DE STALINGRAD  (FRANCE, 1969)

Credits: director, Gilles Katz ; writer, Jean-Roland Quignon.
Cast: Paul Crauchet, Pierre Tabard, Patricia Saint-Georges, Frederic Muninger.
Summary: An anti-war film set in the Soviet Union in 1942-43. An illustration of actual letters sent home by German soldiers during the battle of Stalingrad. Uses stock footage from other wars, including the current one in Vietnam, throughout.