THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN (USA, 1960)
(Other titles: Sept mercenaires; Zeven huurlingen)

Credits: director, John Sturges ; writer, William Roberts.
Cast: Yul Brynner, Eli Wallach, Steve McQueen, Horst Buchholz, Charles Bronson, Robert Vaughn, Brad Dexter, James Coburn.

Summary: Western set in early 20th century Mexico. Seven American gunslingers are hired to protect a poor Mexican village from bandits. Based on the Japanese film The Seven Samurai by Akira Kurosawa. One of a number of 1960s western films later described as 'Vietnam War films' by various critics.

Clements, William M. (see under Malpezzi, Frances M.)
Houston, P. “The magnificent seven” Sight and sound 30/2 (spring 1961), p. 91.

Urish, Benjamin K. Cultural differences in popular entertainments: Shichinin no samurai and The magnificent seven Thesis (M.A.)—Wichita State University, 1984. (100 leaves)

