M4730 MISSING IN AMERICA  (USA, 2005)

Credits: director, Gabrielle Savage Dockterman; writers, Gabrielle Savage Dockterman, Ken Miller, Nancy L. Babine; story, Ken Miller.

Summary: Melodrama set in 1980s Washington State. Jake Neely (Glover) is a reclusive ex-Army officer who lives in a cabin in the woods. Lenny (Weizenbaum) the Amerasian daughter of one of Neely’s former soldiers in Vietnam, shows up at his cabin one day seeking his help. Her father (Straithairn) is suffering from exposure to Agent Orange and wants to leave Lenny with Jake while he checks into a V.A. hospital. Lenny’s presence softens Jake and she also takes an interest in helping other reclusive Vietnam veterans hiding in the forest.