Summary: Comedy film set in contemporary New Jersey and Boise, Idaho. Tale of a lawn-watering suburbanite, family man and career transit engineer named Arlo Pear (Pryor). He is an expert on getting people and things from one place to another. At least he used to be an expert. When a job change forces him to move from New Jersey to Boise, Idaho, he encounters a host of obstacles and crackpots (including the obligatory deranged Vietnam vet played by Quaid) which drive him to the breaking point.
