N3660  NEON MANIACS  (USA, 1985)

Credits: director, Joseph Mangine ; writer, Mark Patrick Carducci.
Cast: Allan Hayes, Leilani Sarelle, Donna Locke, Victor Elliot Brandt.
Summary: Science fiction/horror film set in contemporary San Francisco. A polyglot group of monsters emerge at night from their lair beneath the Golden Gate Bridge to kill San Francisco teenagers. The local police refuse to believe the survivor’s story, so Nathalie (Sarelle), one of the survivors, teams up with her boyfriend (Hayes) and a precocious student videomaker (Locke) to hunt down the creatures. They discover that water will destroy the monsters. The kids and cops end up chasing the creatures with water pistols. Identified as a Vietnam film by Lanning in Vietnam at the movies. One of the most prolific killers among the monsters is dressed in jungle fatigues and carries an M16 rifle. Vietnam is not mentioned specifically but there is no doubt this particular creature is fresh off a jungle tour in Southeast Asia.

Lanning, Michael Lee. Vietnam at the movies [GB] (p. 278)

c2005 J.K.M. Enterprises