N6025  NO DRUMS, NO BUGLES  (USA, 1971)

Credits: director/writer, Clyde Ware.
Cast: Martin Sheen, Davey Davidson, Rod McCary.
Summary: Melodrama set in West Virginia in the 1860s. The true story of Ashby Gatrell (Sheen), a young conscientious objector during the Civil War who spent three years hiding in a Blue Ridge mountain cave. He struggles to survive against the elements of nature, refusing to kill except for sustenance. Some reviewers noted the film’s relevance to contemporary Vietnam War protests and pacifism.
