P3940  PIGS VS. FREAKS  (USA, 1984) [TV]
(Other titles: Off sides)

Credits: director, Dick Lowry; writer, unknown.
Cast: Tony Randall, Patrick Swayze, Adam Baldwin.
Summary: Comedy set in contemporary Oregon. In a small town, the hippie faction often clashes with the mainstream. To settle their differences, the hippie ‘freaks’ take on the town police ‘pigs’ in a football game. On opposing sides of the fence are Frank, the police sergeant, and his son Neal. Also at odds are Neal and one time friend Doug (Swayze), a Vietnam veteran who has joined the police force, who is also protective of his younger sister who prefers the hippie element. To make things even more intense, Mickey South (Baldwin), who fled to Canada to avoid the draft, returns to play for the Freaks football team. Tensions mount and all are challenged as the climax of the film approaches.
