P6460 POLIZOTTO A MIAMI (ITALY, 1988)
(Other titles: Getting even; Miami cops; Sapore di morte; Spur des Schlitzers; Vendetta)

Credits: director, Alfonso Brescia, Leandro Lucchetti ; writer, Roberto Leoni, Leandro Lucchetti.
Cast: Richard Roundtree, Michael J. Aronin, Harrison Muller, Jr.
Summary: Gangster/thriller set in contemporary New York and Southeast Asia. Fifteen years after they served together in Vietnam, ex-Marines Dundee (Roundtree) and Evans (Aronin) are reunited when the FBI enlists their help in tracking another former Marine. Their old platoon mate (Muller), a psychotic soldier with a taste for sadism, is now an international arms dealer accused of killing seven women. Outgunned and outnumbered, Evans and Dundee follow a trail of bodies that leads back to Southeast Asia. With the help of a beautiful Eurasian agent and a mysterious redhead, the relentless veterans fight the last battle of their war, and this time they are not just getting mad, they are getting even.

No known reviews.

c2005 J.K.M. Enterprises