R3307  RED DUST  (USA, 1932)

Credits: director, Victor Fleming ; writer, John Mahin ; play, Wilson Collison.
Cast: Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, Gene Raymond, Mary Astor.
Summary: Melodrama set in contemporary Indochina. Dennis Carson (Gable), overseer of a rubber plantation in Indochina, gives refuge to Vantine (Harlow), a prostitute on the run from Saigon authorities. Romance is sparked but becomes heated when Carson falls for an engineer’s wife (Astor) and drops Vantine. Included by Lanning in his Vietnam at the movies.

Lanning, Michael Lee. Vietnam at the movies [GB] (p. 302)
“Red dust” American Film Institute catalog [GB] (Entry F3.3663)

c2005 J.K.M. Enterprises