(Other titles: Rivoluzionario)

Credits:  director, Paul Williams; writer/novel, Hans Konigsberger.
Cast:  Jon Voight, Jennifer Salt, Robert Duvall, Seymour Cassel.
Summary:  Fantasy melodrama set in an unidentified country. “A” (Voight) is a radical student who believes he has been betrayed by the university group he belongs to because of its policy of cooperation with the system it wishes to change. He joins a more militant group with the aim of fomenting a general strike. He is drafted but deserts when he learns he will be used to put down a worker’s strike. He joins a fanatic who aims to assassinate an anti-labor judge with a bomb, but when the bomb malfunctions he is left on his own, standing in court in front of the judge.
