R5245  RIDE IN A PINK CAR  (CANADA, 1973)

Credits:  director, Robert J. Emery; writer, David Hall.
Summary:  Melodrama set in contemporary Florida. A Vietnam vet (Corbett), thought to have been killed in action but actually only AWOL, returns to his rural Florida home town to find only hate and animosity. His wife has remarried, and his buddies are all gone. He loses his grasp on reality for a time, indulging in jealous rage, but eventually finds a place for himself back in “the world.”