Credits: director, Steven Miller; writers, Steven Miller and the cast.
Cast: Tom Taylor, Steve Barbey, Christopher John Schnase, Cherie Perry, Moses Perry.
Summary: Melodrama set on the Olympic Peninsula in contemporary Washington State. The story of two Vietnam veterans striving to teach their sons about love and honor even as they struggle to recover from their experiences during the war. The breakup of a family threatens to leave a small child fatherless. A teenager joins the military despite his father’s violent interference. Friendship brings strength in peacetime as it did in war. Filmed using veterans rather than professional actors.
