Summary: Horror film set in contemporary Texas. Ten years ago, a demented family of killers butchered his loved ones. Now, Lt. Lefty Enright (Dennis Hopper) is determined to seek revenge. He follows the trail of gore to a catacomb of surrealistic caverns, where unspeakable evil is committed, and innocent victims become the ghastly “ingredients” of a nightmarish enterprise. One of the new family members added to this sequel is Chop-Top (Moseley), who was in Vietnam at the time of the original massacre. He returned with a metal plate in his head and proves to be just as crazy as the rest of his family.
