T4550 THIS GUN FOR HIRE  (USA, 1/9/1991) [TV]

Credits: director, Lou Antonio; writer, N.D. Schreiner; novel, Graham Greene.

Summary: Action/adventure film set in contemporary New Orleans, La. A professional killer (who first learned his trade in Vietnam) (Wagner) is duped by an unidentified client into killing a US Senator in New Orleans. An attempt by the client (who is actually a defense contractor fearful of an investigation by the Senator) to have Wagner killed fails. Wagner begins a search for those who set him. He is pursued by both the police and the agents of the contractor, but with the aid of a stripper he encounters along the way (Everhard) he manages to stay one step ahead of the pursuit until he finds the answers he is seeking.

“Robert Wagner guns for professional change” USA today (Jan 8, 1991), p. 2D.
Scott, Tony (Tone). “USA world premier movie: This gun for hire” Daily variety (Jan 9, 1991), p. ?

c2005 J.K.M. Enterprises