T5180 TICK, TICK, TICK (USA, 1970)

Credits: director, Ralph Nelson; writer, James Lee Barrett.

Cast: Jim Brown, George Kennedy, Fredric March, Lynn Carlin, Richard Elkins.

Summary: Comedy/drama set in the contemporary Mississippi. When the white sheriff (Kennedy) of a small town retires, Jimmy Price (Brown) runs for the office and becomes the first black sheriff in town history. Racial tensions rise. One of his deputies, Bradford Wilkes (Elkins), is a Vietnam veteran.

Bogle, Donald. Blacks in American films and television: an encyclopedia [GB] (p. 217)

Hill, George H. (see under Parish, George H.)

Parish, James Robert and Hill, George H. Black action films [GB] (Entry 216)

“Tick, tick, tick” Film bulletin 39/1 (Jan 12, 1970), p. 16-17.

