
Series summary: Medical melodrama set in contemporary San Francisco, Calif. Follows the experiences of Dr. John McIntyre, nicknamed ‘Trapper’ (Pernell Roberts), a Korean War M*A*S*H veteran who is now chief surgeon at San Francisco Memorial Hospital. His chief assistant is Vietnam War veteran Dr. Alonzo ‘Gonzo’ Gates (Gregory Harrison).

Flashback (9/30/1979)

Credits: director, Murray Golden ; writer, unknown.
Cast: Pernell Roberts, Gregory Harrison, James Coco, David Huffman.
Summary: Trapper and Gonzo deal with a deranged Vietnam veteran.

Long ago and far away (1/6/1985)

Credits: director, Earl Bellamy ; writers, Emilier R. Small, Garn Stephens, Kimmer Ringwald.
Cast: Pernell Roberts, Gregory Harrison, Frances Lee McCain.
Summary: A nurse who served in Vietnam is having flashbacks which put her current patients at risk. The episode was dedicated to the nurses who served in Vietnam.

Pagoda cure (1/25/1981)

Credits: director, Seymour Robbie ; writer, Milt Rosen.
Summary: When a Vietnamese woman is operated on, very skillfully, but without a consent form, the staff tries to find out the identity of the mystery surgeon.

What are friends for (11/11/1979)

Credits: director, Ralph Sensensky ; writer, Ray Brenner.
Cast: Pernell Roberts, Gregory Harrison, Richard Gilliland.
Summary: A medic who once saved Gonzo’s life in Vietnam now wants Gonzo’s help in a fraudulent medical claim.

Ringwald, Kimmer (see under Small, Emilier)
Small, Emilier; Stephens, Garn; and Ringwald, Kimmer. Long ago, and far away [script] (63 p.) [Annenberg Script Archive, script number TRAP125]
Stephens, Garn (see under Small, Emilier)

c2005 J.K.M. Enterprises