Summary: In this episode, Adam seeks the help of Ben Jordan (Surovy), a down-and-out Vietnam vet, who was a graduate student/research scientist in the 1960s. Adam is seeking an alien artefact (a crystal) which Ben was studying back in the 60s when his lab was invaded by an anti-war student protest. Because Ben's girl friend was a leader of the protest which blew up the lab, Ben was sent to Vietnam! His girl friend, blinded in the explosion, is now a concert violinist. Both know the whereabouts of pieces of the crystal, and Adam must cajole them and elude Col. Vise to rejoin the pieces.
