W2435 WALKING TALL (USA, 1973)
(Other titles: Un duro per la legge; Justice sauvage)

Credits: director, Phil Karlson; writer, Mort Briskin.
Cast: Joe Don Baker, Elizabeth Hartman, Gene Evans, Noah Beery, Jr.
Summary: Crime melodrama set in contemporary Tennessee. The legendary Tennessee sheriff and Vietnam veteran, Buford Pusser (Baker), with the help of his wife and his right hand man, the first black deputy sheriff in Tennessee, refuses to compromise in his fight against corruption and his determination to clean up his town.

Auster, Albert and Quart, Leonard. How the war was remembered: Hollywood & Vietnam [GB] (p. 48)
Lanning, Michael Lee. Vietnam at the movies [GB] (p. 344)
Quart, Leonard (see under Auster, Albert)
Segers, Frank. “‘Walking tall’ fresh proof a distrib should resist ‘drop dead’ psychology” Variety 271 (Aug 1, 1973), p. 16.
“Walking tall” Motion picture guide (edited by Jay Robert Nash and Stanley Ralph Ross) Chicago : Cinebooks, 1985. (v. 9, p. 3725)
Weldon, Michael. The psychotronic video guide New York : St. Martin’s Griffin, 1996. (p. 60?)
Zimmerman, Paul D. “Movies: Support your local sheriff” Newsweek 82 (Oct 8, c2005 J.K.M. Enterprises