Summary: When a Navy aircraft collides with a North Korean jet, the five crew members are missing and presumed down in North Korean territory. Pres. Bartlet (Sheen) dispatches a Navy SEAL team to find and rescue them. This prompts White House Chief of Staff Leo McGarry (John Spencer) to recall his own harrowing experience as a pilot shot down over North Vietnam. At the same time Leo’s good friend, fellow flyer and the man who saved his life in Vietnam (DeMunn) is now a defense contractor under investigation for paying bribes to obtain military contracts.
