W4490 WHITE GHOST (USA, 1988)
(Other titles: Sporca guerra)

Credits: director, B. J. Davis; writer, Gary Thompson.
Summary: Action/adventure film set in contemporary Vietnam. In the steamy jungles of Southeast Asia, there is a legend of a ghostly American soldier who haunts the war ravaged countryside. However Steve Shepard (Katt) is not an apparition. He is an ex-Army Intelligence officer who disappeared 18 years ago in Vietnam. Dressed in Kabuki make-up, he has waged non-stop war along the Cambodia/Vietnam border. Now he is ready to return to America, but not everyone wants him back. Washington sends in a squad of mercenaries led by Capt. Walker (Crawford), Shepard’s former Green Beret nemesis, to eliminate this embarrassment.
