W4592 THE WHOLE WORLD IS WATCHING : WEATHERMAN ‘69 (USA, 1989)
(Other titles: Weatherman ‘69)

Credits: director/writer, Raymond Pettibon.
Cast: Kim Gordon, Thurston Moore, Mike Watt, Rich Costigan, Mark Hecht.
Summary: Experimental (?) film set in the U.S. in 1969. A group of about twenty Marxist revolutionaries, who model themselves after the Weathermen, plot revolution and hang out. Various members of the group sit around smoking joints, breaking record albums, and talking about Marxism, sex, politics, sexual politics, Richard Nixon and the Vietnam War. They are visited by actors portraying Jane Fonda, Tom Hayden and Allen Ginsberg. “All scenes are performed by method acting!”--Container. The “acting” here is amateurish, as is the staging and editing of the film.
