YOU’LL LIKE MY MOTHER (USA, 1972)

Credits: director, Lamont Johnson; writer, Jo Heims; novel, Naomi A. Hintze.
Cast: Patty Duke, Rosemary Murphy, Richard Thomas.
Summary: Thriller set in contemporary Minnesota. Francesca Kinsolving (Duke) is pregnant and newly widowed by the Vietnam War. She travels to Minnesota to seek solace with her mother-in-law (Murphy). Expecting a warm welcome, she enters into a nightmare world of secrets, surprises and deception. A snow blizzard strands her in the house with the insidious woman, and her disturbed teenage daughter. Francesca discovers that her mother-in-law is not whom she claims to be.

Murphy, Arthur D. “You’ll like my mother” Variety (Oct 11, 1972), p. ?