R2395 RAMBO (USA, 2008)
(Other titles: Rambo IV)

Credits: director/writer, Sylvester Stallone.
Cast: Sylvester Stallone, Julie Benz, Paul Schulze, Graham McTavish, Maung Maung Khin.
Summary: Action/adventure film set in contemporary Thailand and Burma. John Rambo (Stallone) has been living a secluded existence in Bangkok salvaging old PT boats and tanks for scrap metal and capturing poisonous snakes for a snake-fighting tourist show. He is approached by a group of Christian aid workers who want to travel up river to provide assistance to Karen villagers long oppressed by the Burmese military. After some convincing by missionary Sarah (Benz), Rambo takes the group up the Salween River. Once Rambo departs, the missionaries are ambushed by the sadistic Burmese Major Pa Tee Tint (Khin). Some are killed or tortured and the survivors are held for ransom. Their church group recruits five young mercenaries in a rescue effort. They hire Rambo to guide them up river, where, unwanted, he joins the effort to save the captive missionaries.

“At 61, Rambo is in fighting form, but does America still care?” Kansas City star (Jan 25, 2008), Preview, p. E1.
Bentley, Rick. “ ‘Rambo’ actress toughs it out; Julie Benz soldiers on through bruised ribs, big bugs and a demanding director” The Fresno bee (Jan 25, 2008), sec. 7, p. 13.
__________. “Stallone explodes onto the scene of another sequel” The Fresno bee (Jan 25, 2008), sec. 7, p. 12.
Breznican, Anthony. “ ‘Rambo’ is on a mission in Burma; Stallone goes for redemption” USA today (Nov 15, 2007), Life, p. 1D.
Brownfield, Paul. “So, new Rambo has a subtle side; An image that originally was meant for a T-shirt becomes an arresting harbinger for the fourth installment in the series” Los Angeles times (Jan 14, 2008), p. E2.
Chandler, Neil (see under Valler, Dean)
Chordas, Nick. “Rambo reloads; Sly still slays ‘em at age 61!” Columbus dispatch [OH] (Jan 25, 2008), p. 10D.
Crust, Kevin. “Older ‘Rambo’ rampages in Burma” Los Angeles times (Jan 24, 2008), p. ?
Dawson, Angela. “Rambo redux – Stallone’s world-weary warrior returns to the big screen” Ventura County star (Jan 24, 2008), Time out, p. ?
Feeney, Mark. “Rambo’s back and there will be blood” Boston globe (Jan 25, 2008), LivingArts, p. 8D
Fibbs, Brandon. “Review: Rambo returns for rumble in the jungle” McClatchy- Tribune business news (Jan 25, 2008) [ProQuest]
Germain, David. “Film review: ‘Rambo’ reals of depraved violence as Stallone builds up his body count” Associated Press entertainment news (Jan 24, 2008)
Goodykoontz, Bill. “Kill and kill again; Very bad guys meet horrible ends in predictable, ultraviolent ‘Rambo’” Detroit free press (Jan 25, 2008), p. 3D.
Graham, Adam. “‘Rambo’ soldiers on – Movie may give him new relevance – or just blow things up” Detroit news (Jan 24, 2008), My time, p. 18M.
Koltnow, Barry. “Rambo reloaded; Does America yearn for a brand of butt-kicking not seen in 19 years? Stallone thinks so” Orange County register [Santa Ana, CA] (Jan 25, 2008), Arts, p. ?
Moore, Roger. “John Rambo; Latest ‘Rambo’ movie is more profane, violent that ever” Orlandosentinel.com (Jan 25, 2008)
Neman, Daniel. “Stallone’s revisted ‘Rambo’ a bloody mess; Blood-and-guts mercenary film has little more to offer due to bad acting and script” Richmond times-dispatch (Jan 26, 2008), Entertainment, p. B4.
Newcct, Bill. “Rambo redux” AARP the magazine 51/1A (Jan/Feb 2008), p. 19.
Outhier, Craig. “Review; It’s the splatter that matters in ‘Rambo’; Stallone takes gore to new heights in a tightly paced jungle-rescue yarn” Orange County register [Santa Ana, CA] (Jan 25, 2008), Show, p. M.
Persall, Steve. “Going out in a blaze of gory” St. Petersburg times (Jan 26, 2008), p. 2B.
__________. “‘Rambo’ takes aim at a ‘Rocky’ finish” St. Petersburg times (Jan 24, 2008), Weekend, p. 12W.
“Rambo to hell and back” Boxoffice 143/12 (Dec 2007), p. 47-8.
Ratliff, Larry. “There will be blood (lots of it) in ‘Rambo’” San Antonio express-news (Jan 25, 2008), Weekender, p. 3H.
Salles, Steve. “Curtain call for Rambo; And it’s curtains for all the bad guys, in grisly gut-wrenching detail, in this gory sequel” Standard-examiner [Ogden, UT] (Jan 25, 2008), p. ?

Scott, A. O. “Just when you thought it was safe to go back in the jungle” New York times (Jan 25, 2008), p. 12.

Serba, John. “Killin’ as easy as ever in grisly ‘Rambo’; Gratuitous violence is excessive, even for blood-rich action-figure franchise” Grand Rapids press (Jan 26, 2008), Entertainment, p. B5.

Simon, Jeff. “‘Rambo’ keeps killing coming” Buffalo news (Jan 26, 2008), p. C5.

“Sly spouts off” New York post (Jan 25, 2008), Page six, p. 11.

Smith, Kyle. “Ramboloney! Gory sequel is better left Stallone; Big, bloody mess” New York post (Jan 25, 2008), p. 37.

Stevens, Dana. “Rambo” Slate (Jan 24, 2008)

Thomas, Mike. “Brutality, thy name is ‘Rambo’; Ultimate warrior goes on a shockingly gory killing spree” Chicago sun-times (Jan 25, 2008), p. 39.

Thompson, Gary. “No more Mr. Nice Guy; The other ‘Rambos’ are nothing compared to this Burmese bloodbath” Philadelphia daily news (Jan 25, 2008), p. 43.

Valler, Dean and Chandler, Neil. “Rambo’s very Corrie coup; Street star’s movie could trigger uprising” Sunday star [Toronto, Ont.] (Dec 30, 2007), p. 16.

Williams, Alex. “Tough guys for tough times” New York times (Jan 13, 2008), sec. 9, p. 1.

Wolgamott, L. Kent. “‘Rambo’ rescue story sheaths carnage in morality” Lincoln journal star [NE] (Jan 26, 2008), p. B3.

©2008 J.K.M. Enterprises