The mission of the School of Business is to offer educational programs that prepare students for a purposeful life by integrating Lasallian values with current business management skills.

Through its faculty, curricular environment, and linkages with the business community, the School of Business creates a value-centered educational community as the setting for its educational programs.

Within this context, it seeks to provide an appropriate blend of contemporary business theory and practice, placing paramount importance on teaching and learning enriched by scholarly research and professional activity.

The primary purpose of the School of Business' undergraduate program is to prepare students to lead an enriched personal life and to enter upon a successful professional career through exposure to traditional liberal arts and a contemporary business education.

The School of Business strives to fulfill its mission by requiring students to develop communication, analytic, and decision-making skills by nurturing in students the ability to define and synthesize, by helping students to form independent, well-reasoned judgments, and by introducing students to common business research methods and practices.

Teaching and learning are of paramount importance. We believe we should

- know each student as an individual;
- challenge each student to work toward attaining his or her best performance level;
- utilize the curriculum to help students identify the ethical dimensions embedded in business management; and
- immerse students in a learning environment that blends current business theory and practice.

Continuous quality-improvement processes ensure that the many offerings of the School of Business are of the highest quality. The program is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International), which establishes standards designed to ensure excellence. Less than 5 percent of the world’s business schools are accredited by AACSB. In addition, programs are regularly evaluated in terms of standards established by various professional bodies, such as the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the American Management Association, and the American Marketing Association, and through an ongoing dialogue and review with business executives and professionals.

Since 1996, La Salle has inducted the top 10 percent of its undergraduate seniors and 7 percent of its juniors into Beta Gamma Sigma (BGS), the international honor society for students enrolled in AACSB-accredited schools. In fourteen of the last fifteen years, the La Salle chapter of BGS has been chosen as one of the top five from more than 540 chapters world-wide. In the last five years, we were named as the Silver Chapter (in 2012, 2013, 2015 and 2016), and the Gold Chapter (in 2014).

The School of Business prepares students to develop the skills and experience to move from the University into management/professional positions in business, government, and nonprofit organizations. The Accounting Department offers a Four-Year Dual BS/MBA Program that could meet the 150-hour requirement for CPA certification. Experiential education programs—the internship and Business Scholars Co-op programs—provide hands-on experience in business organizations. Recent participants have included Aramark, Baker Tilly, Johnson & Johnson, PwC, KPMG, EY, Deloitte, Disney, Burlington Stores, CIGNA, IBX, SAP, Sunoco.

The Center for Entrepreneurship provides classroom and experiential learning, mentoring, and public seminars for students whose career interests are in start-up ventures, nonprofits, or climbing the corporate ladder.

More than 100 executives volunteer their time every year during our Executives on Campus program to come to classes to meet with students. Many of the business clubs set up field trips to area businesses so that students can see professional operations first-hand.

In addition, the Business Advisory Board, which is composed of senior executives from companies throughout the Delaware Valley, advises the Dean of the School of Business on contemporary developments in business practice and how to help students prepare for professional careers.

Opportunities to enhance a student’s international exposure are offered through study abroad and travel/study options. La Salle has strong ties with the American University of Rome in Italy, Universidad La Salle in Mexico City, Deakin University in Melbourne, Australia, and the National University of Ireland in Galway, where students have the opportunity to have semester-long learning experiences. Students may also gain acceptance to semester-long programs in Brazil, China, England, France, Mexico, South Africa, and Spain through the Lasallian International Programs Consortium, as well as to a summer program in Switzerland. In addition, La Salle provides various levels of support for students wanting to study at other destinations. In travel/study courses offered by the School of Business, students study international aspects of various business disciplines in a semester-long course and travel for approximately 10 days to other locations in the world, where they study related business practices and the culture of that area. Previous trips have taken students to France, Germany, Canada, Bermuda, London, and China. Additional travel/study opportunities related to liberal arts areas of study are offered by the University. Opportunities for students to do an internship abroad are being developed.

In short, when you are a La Salle University business major, you have a number of competitive advantages. Your “real world” experiences and academic preparation put you on the right path toward success.
THE CURRICULUM

The program leading to a Bachelor of Science degree in business consists of 120 credits (minimum of 39 courses) for business administration, business systems and analytics, finance, international business, management and leadership, and marketing majors, and 128 credits (minimum of 41 courses) for accounting majors. The liberal arts and science studies and business foundation courses tend to be concentrated in the first two years, and the professional studies in the last two years.

THE LIBERAL ARTS CORE CURRICULUM (17 COURSES)

Offering sustained study in a broad range of disciplines, the Core Curriculum provides students with an opportunity to build a strong educational foundation for the future. Guided by La Salle’s heritage as a Catholic university, the Core Curriculum reflects La Salle’s strong commitment to the interdependence of intellectual and spiritual growth.

The aim of the Core Curriculum is to help students find an engaging living as part of an engaged life. As future competitors in a rapidly reforming world, students need intellectual resources that keep pace with current innovations; as future innovators, students need spiritual resources that guide human beings toward humane reforms.

While the Core allows you some freedom of choice, it includes guidelines that should provide coherence in your college education. The Core Curriculum clusters course requirements into areas defined by educational objectives: “Powers,” “Frameworks of Scientific Understanding,” “Patterns of Meaning,” and “Understanding at Home and Abroad.” A maximum of 17 courses are required of School of Business majors.

“Powers” refers to competencies that enable students to learn, to think, and to communicate. With this coursework, students will emerge from the Core Curriculum possessing a strong set of skills in reading, writing, oral communication, and mathematics. They also will learn how to use computer technology to aid their work in each of these areas. These competencies will be integrated into courses in all areas of the Core, but they will be taught directly in courses in writing, oral communication, mathematics, and information literacy.

“Frameworks of Scientific Understanding” refers to concepts and methods learned in courses in the natural and social sciences. In these courses, students will become familiar with the scientific method and sharpen their understanding of the natural processes and the social developments that shape the world in which we live.

“Patterns of Meaning” refers to a set of capacities students must acquire to engage the moral, aesthetic, and spiritual significance of human events and achievements. Courses in the humanities will enable students to develop these capacities.

“Understanding at Home and Abroad” refers to fostering the Christian Brothers’ ideals of community, social justice, and compassionate understanding across barriers dividing human beings. Students will be required to enroll in one of the courses designated in the course catalog by the symbol of a house (理解 at Home) and one of the courses designated by the symbol of a plane (理解 Abroad). Alternatively, students may fulfill these requirements through independent projects with the approval of the Department Chair and the Core Director. Faculty and staff will mentor a limited number of independent projects.

BUSINESS CORE (18 COURSES)

Business education at La Salle University exists within the context of a strong liberal arts base. The key two purposes of business education at La Salle University are:

- Preparation of students for careers in business – the primary purpose of the business core.
- Preparation of students in specialized areas of business – the primary purpose of the business major.

In order to accomplish the purpose of preparation of students for business, the business core at La Salle has the following learning goals:

SELF ASSESSMENT AND DEVELOPMENT

- Self knowledge and awareness
- Professional direction and determination to succeed
- An ability to critically assess oneself
- Intellectual curiosity
- An ability to accept and implement change

JOB-RELATED SKILL DEVELOPMENT

- Networking
- Interviewing
- Resume writing

CRITICAL THINKING AND PROBLEM SOLVING

- Problem solving and decision making skills
- An understanding of elements of sound research
- Development of the ability to conduct research
- Critical thinking skills
- An ability to evaluate, identify, and understand different perspectives, positive and negatives, and strengths and weaknesses
- An ability to integrate and synthesize diverse information or skills

COMMUNICATION SKILLS

- Oral communication skills
- Written communication skills
- Interpersonal communication skills

USING DATA AND TECHNOLOGY

- An understanding of, and ability to utilize, qualitative and quantitative data
- Technical skills to solve business problems and make decisions

CORE BUSINESS KNOWLEDGE

- Knowledge in key business disciplines
- Knowledge of specific businesses, business practices, and opportunities

ETHICS, SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY, AND SOCIAL FORCES

- Knowledge of and ability to examine ethical considerations in business
- An understanding of contemporary social forces affecting business, including environmental issues, demographic diversity, technology, global/international issues, cultural forces, and the political and legal environments
- Motivation to contribute to society

The Business Core courses provide the student with integrative approaches to understanding business processes while at the same time focused attention on the various business disciplines. In addition, the core focuses energy on linking theory and practice.

The following courses constitute the Business Core:

- BUS 100 Business Perspectives
- BUS 101 Introduction to Financial Accounting
- BUS 202 Descriptive and Predictive Analytics
- BUS 203 Organizational Behavior and Skill Development
- BUS 204 Principles of Marketing with Applications
- BUS 205 Business Systems for Analytics
- BUS 206 Financial Markets and Institutions: Principles and Applications
- BUS 207 Managerial Accounting
- BUS 208 Fundamentals of Financial Management
- BUS 303 Legal and Ethical Environment of Business
- BUS 304 Prescriptive Analytics
- BUS 400 Business Strategy
- International Business Course/Experience

MAJOR COURSES

(4, 5, 6, OR 8 COURSES)

These courses provide an intensive learning experience in one (or more than one for the business administration major) facet of business and serve as a basis for future career development.

Professional specializations are offered in the following disciplines:

- Accounting
The professional studies consist of four courses for the international business and management and leadership majors, five courses for the business systems and analytics, finance and marketing majors, six for the business administration, and eight for the accounting major in one (or several for the business administration major) functional area beyond those courses required in the business core. The purpose of requiring eight courses for accounting majors is to help them to be better prepared to pass the Certified Public Accounting (CPA) examinations or to embark on an accounting career in industry. Management and leadership majors must have a second major or minor. International business majors must have a second major, or a minor in risk management and insurance. The professional option may be chosen upon matriculation or prior to starting major courses. Except for the business administration majors, students who wish to do so have the option to pursue dual majors.

PROFESSIONAL MINORS

Students who wish to do so have the option to pursue minors. Permission of the Chair or Director of the minor must be obtained. Professional minors are offered in the following disciplines:

Professional minors are offered in:

- Accounting
- Business Administration*
- Business Systems and Analytics
- Entrepreneurship
- Finance Minor for Accounting Majors
- Health-Care Administration (not currently available)
- Management and Leadership*
- Marketing*
- Risk Management and Insurance

*These minors are not available to students who major in business.

Other minors are offered by the School of Arts and Sciences.

   3.
   4.
   5.
   6.

Additional Liberal Arts Core Requirements are: Understanding at Home Course (met by BUS 303); Understanding Abroad Course (met by ECN 150)

1 Options to fulfill this requirement are: BUS 300, ECN 331 or 335, FIN 403, MGT 356, MKT 305, any School of Business travel study course.
2 Finance majors who are Managerial track waive this requirement since they take FIN 403 as one of their "major courses." International Business majors waive this requirement since they take at least 3 cr of these course options as part of their "major courses." Marketing and Management and Leadership majors who elect the international course in their major may waive this requirement and thereby gain one more elective. Business Administration (BUS) majors may be able to use an International Business course as part of their Individualized Plan of Study, see assigned advisor for more information.
3 The Accounting (ACC) major requires eight major courses; Business Administration (BUS) requires six; Business Systems & Analytics, Finance and Marketing require five. Management & Leadership (MGTL) requires four and completion of another major or minor as well. International Business (INT) requires either 4 and completion of another major or 5 and completion of the Risk Management and Insurance (RMI) minor.
4 MGTL and INT majors use electives for major or minor courses since they must complete requirements of a second major or minor. Students in the ADP and Summit Programs will likely not need the "1 credit" since they will have a 1-credit FYO.

¹ Alternatively, one of six courses may be taken in summer.
² Management and Leadership and International Business majors use electives for major and minor courses since these majors require a second major or minor.
³ A 1-credit course may also need to be taken to get to the required number of credits to graduate.
FOUR-YEAR BS (ACCOUNTING)/MBA DUAL DEGREE

The Accounting Department offers a four-year dual B.S. in Accounting/MBA degree program. The purpose of the program is to allow high-ability students to meet the 150 hours of education required by most states for CPA certification in four years, while earning both an undergraduate and graduate degree. Students move through the traditional undergraduate program at an accelerated pace by taking undergraduate summer classes for two summers following their first and second year, and then completing MBA requirements during their fourth year.

Students electing to pursue the dual degree are required to have only 120 credits for the B.S. degree, rather than the 128 credits required for the four-year B.S. in accounting. The remaining 30 credits are graduate MBA credits and include graduate accounting courses. With careful planning, a student in the dual-degree program can participate in the Business Scholars Co-op Program or complete a single full-time internship.

Students admitted to the dual-degree program as entering freshmen generally must have an SAT score of 1200 or higher on the Critical Reading and Mathematics sections. Currently enrolled students are eligible to join the program no later than the end of their sophomore year if they maintain a GPA of 3.4 or higher. Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.4 to remain in the program. Students who decide not to complete the MBA or who do not qualify for acceptance to the MBA program have the option to leave the program with a B.S. after completing two additional accounting electives to meet the 128-credit requirement.

* Fewer courses are required in this first summer for students who have brought in AP or transfer credits

 Year three internships are optional, but highly recommended

 See Course Sequencing Charts
EXPERIENTIAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Experiential education programs are designed to give students hands-on work experience related to their majors. Participation provides an opportunity to link the theory and practice of the discipline. Research shows that students who intern or co-op generally have greater success in finding their first jobs after graduation and earn higher starting salaries. The Internship/Co-op Program and Business Scholars Co-op Program are the experiential education program options for students.

INTERNSHIP/CO-OP PROGRAM

Internships and co-ops are available throughout the year (most are taken during the fall or spring semesters) and range from three to six months. Students generally participate during their junior or senior years. Internships may be full time or part time, paid or non-paid. They count as free electives and not as major courses. Students earn three credits for internships and co-ops. As with other courses, they must be rostered prior to the end of the first week of the semester. Co-ops and full-time internships are up to six months long. They are paid positions. A student taking a co-op or full-time internship may graduate in four years by taking summer courses and/or night course(s) in the semester of the co-op/internship. Part-time internships are one semester long and generally are non-paid. The student ordinarily carries a full academic schedule along with the part-time internship. Up to three co-ops or internships may be taken over the course of a student’s years at La Salle. Contact the Associate Director for Experiential Education in the La Salle University Career Center at 215.951.1075 for more information.

BUSINESS SCHOLARS CO-OP PROGRAM

The highly selective Business Scholars Co-op Program (BSCP) was designed to meet the academic and introductory work experience needs of achievement-oriented, academically talented students. Similar to traditional applied-learning programs, the BSCP prepares students through classroom theory, provides career exploration counseling, develops professional skills through workshops, and enables students to gain practical work experience for successful job placement upon graduation. BSCP students graduate in just four years because of the accelerated curriculum (See model roster on page 121).

Students selected for the Business Scholars Co-op Program have proven themselves as highly motivated academic achievers and have demonstrated themselves as leaders both in and out of the classroom. Students generally possess the following:

- An SAT score of 1200 or higher on the Critical Reading and Mathematics section or an ACT score of 27
- A ranking in the first quintile of their high school graduating class
- Strong leadership qualities
- A high level of co-curricular activities

The candidate application process may include an interview with members of the BSCP’s Selection Committee.

Co-ops complete multiple work assignments during which they are paid competitive wages by employers and receive academic credit for each of the two assignments. The first work assignment is four months long and occurs during the summer after sophomore year. The second work assignment is six to eight months long and occurs either during the spring of junior year and the following summer (Schedule A) or during the summer before senior year and the fall of senior year (Schedule B). Students follow Schedule A or B depending on the scheduling needs of the students and companies.

Students are matched with employers according to their career objectives, academic achievements, work experience, relevant activities and accomplishments, and the employers’ needs.

The chart on the following page outlines the academic and work phases of the program.

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS TAKING GRADUATE CREDITS

Undergraduate business majors with senior standing and a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or better may take up to two MBA courses in one of the last two semesters of their senior year (they can take both in one semester or one in one semester and one in the other) in the "Full-Time" and "Part-Time" MBA Programs (courses in the "One-Year" Program cannot be taken). The credits and courses are over and above the credits and courses required for their undergraduate degree; i.e., no MBA course will count to fulfill credits or requirements for the undergraduate degree. Of course, students will have to have had the (equivalent) pre-requisite(s), and seats need to be available in the course (i.e., MBA students will not be shut out) as determined by the Director of the MBA Program. Permission of both the undergraduate chairperson and the graduate director are required.

MODEL ROSTER – BUSINESS SCHOLAR CO-OP PROGRAM

*Fewer courses are required in this first summer for students who have brought in AP or transfer credits.
MBA BASIC CORE EQUIVALENTS

You can reduce the number of courses required to earn a master’s degree in Business Administration at La Salle by earning As or Bs in certain required undergraduate courses.

There is a body of undergraduate course work, drawn primarily from the Business Curriculum, which can be used to waive up to 9 credits of foundation level course work and 3 credits of core level course work for the La Salle MBA degree. All of these undergraduate courses are required for all undergraduate business majors. By earning a minimum “B” grade in the undergraduate course(s), the corresponding MBA course requirement will be waived. These courses are listed in the following chart.

A limited number of students with at least a cumulative undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher may be admitted into the program for one semester without the GMAT or GRE test scores. Conditionally accepted students are required to successfully complete the GMAT or GRE by the end of their first enrolled semester. Conditionally accepted students are not eligible for financial aid loans until they are fully (regularly) accepted to the program.

The GMAT or GRE is required for regular acceptance into the MBA Program, and students are expected to have proficiencies in written and oral communication, quantitative abilities, and computer skills. Any specific requirement questions should be directed to the MBA Office at 215.951.1057. Effective Fall 2012 applicants with an undergraduate business degree from La Salle or any other AACSB-accredited institution who have a minimum overall GPA of 3.2 or above will be granted a GMAT/GRE waiver.

Beta Gamma Sigma tuition discount: All undergraduate students and graduates who are Beta Gamma Sigma members from La Salle or any other institution will now have the opportunity to apply to the La Salle University Full-time MBA (FTMBA) Program with no application fee, no GMAT or GRE required, and be eligible for a 25% tuition discount (space permitting).

Students planning to enroll in the La Salle University One-Year MBA Program should consult with the Director of Full-time MBA Programs regarding course waivers.

FACULTY
Mary Jeanne Welsh, Ph.D., Chair

PROFESSORS: Borkowski, Reardon (Emeritus), Welsh
ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: Leauby, Ugras, Wentzel
ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: Brazina, Fitzgerald, Hua, Lafond, Massimini

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM

Accounting, “the Language of Business,” is the core of any business enterprise. Accountants are responsible for communicating and interpreting financial information as a basis for strategic decision-making.

Accounting includes specialties that focus on specific and unique aspects of the financial institution. Cost Management, Information Systems, Auditing, Taxation, and Multinational Operations are areas of advanced study that prepare students to function as executives responsible for business decision-making in both the profit and not-for-profit enterprises. Students can also earn six credits toward graduation by participating in an Experiential Education Program.

Since almost all organizations need accounting information, positions range from manufacturing firms to service industries to hospitals and other not-for profits and all levels of governmental operations. Graduates function as CPAs, internal auditors, bankers, financial planners, budget specialists, merger and acquisition consultants, and tax planners.

Students are encouraged to join one of the three professional student organizations: the Accounting Association, Beta Alpha Honors Society, and the student chapter of the National Association of Black Accountants.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Accounting Department--consistent with the missions of La Salle University and the School of Business--is to prepare students to become effective and socially responsible business and community leaders. Dedicated to the Christian Brothers’ traditions of excellence in teaching and concern for individual values of its students, the accounting faculty's charge is to instill within our students an understanding of accounting as a profession with high ethical responsibilities.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES AND GOALS FOR THE ACCOUNTING DEPARTMENT

1. Our graduates will understand the ethical and regulatory environment for accountants and the role accountants play in society to provide and ensure the integrity of financial, managerial and other information.

2. Our graduates will be able to apply the critical thinking and analytical skills that support professional skepticism, assessment, and assurance of accounting information.

3. Our graduates will develop communication skills that will allow them to effectively communicate financial and non-financial results.

4. Our graduates will be able to record, analyze, and interpret historical and prospective financial and non-financial information.

5. Our graduates will be able to use technology as appropriate to analyze financial and non-financial information.

6. Our graduates will demonstrate an understanding of tax policy, strategy and compliance.

7. Our graduates will understand international accounting issues and practices, including roles and responsibilities played by accountants within a global context.

PERSONAL FINANCIAL PLANNING
3 credits
The course provides a comprehensive understanding of the fundamentals, strategies, and implementation that make up the personal financial planning (PFP) process. An overview of the PFP process is then expanded into a comprehensive study of its essential components, such as risk management, investment planning, retirement planning, and estate planning. Inherent in all aspects of the course will be the underlying tax implications that exist as an integral part of the decision-making. Students will also gain an understanding of the professional responsibilities and regulatory requirements that accompany the PFP process. Each student will then work with a case study in developing a financial plan.

PREREQUISITES: SENIOR STANDING AND A GRADE OF B OR BETTER IN ACC 307 (INCOME TAX).

ACC 478 (F)
ACCOUNTING INFORMATION AND ENTERPRISE RESOURCE SYSTEMS
3 credits
An in-depth examination of accounting information systems (AIS) and enterprise resource planning (ERP) systems at both theoretical and conceptual levels. Concepts introduced enable the student to evaluate technologies, discuss their impact on the accounting profession, and to apply those technologies to practical business situations. Emphasis is on transaction cycles, transaction processing, accounting controls, systems auditing, and fraud detection.

PREREQUISITE: ACC 202 AND SENIOR STANDING.
ACC 480 (S)
ACCOUNTING SEMINAR
3 credits
Research in contemporary accounting topics. The course is designed to develop and improve written and oral communication skills necessary for success in business.

PREREQUISITES: ACC 202 OR, TAKEN CONCURRENTLY, BUS 208 AND SENIOR STANDING.
BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MAJOR

FACULTY
Lynn Miller, Ph.D., Chair, Department of Management and Leadership

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM
The business administration major is a flexible course of study allowing the student to work with a Faculty Advisor to design a sequence of upper-level courses that prepares the student for a targeted career path. In particular, the business administration major is a good fit for students interested in entrepreneurship, small business management, and other careers that do not require a specialized educational background.

Students develop an approved Individualized Plan of Study, typically by the end of the sophomore year, describing their planned academic coursework and related experience. This plan should be developed after appropriate advising during the freshman and sophomore years and should include building a multidisciplinary and generalizable skill set in areas such as project management, teamwork, financial planning, and marketing.

Business administration students are strongly encouraged to supplement their portfolios through relevant extracurricular activities and internships/co-ops.

MISSION STATEMENT
The mission of the Business Administration major is to enable students to develop generalizable skills in multiple business disciplines.

REQUIREMENTS
- Required for Major in Business Administration: 6 courses
  - Six 3-credit courses in Business (in addition to the Business Core courses that are required of all Business majors) selected from the following discipline areas: ACC, BSA, BUS 300, ENT, FIN, LAW, MGT, MKT, and RMI. Students select no more than two courses from any one discipline.
  - Individualized plan of study approved by the student’s Faculty Advisor

The business administration major is designed to cover multiple business disciplines, and while students may not dual major with another discipline within the School of Business, they may do so with an appropriate discipline outside the School of Business. Students seeking a more specialized career track in business should consider one of the other majors in the School of Business.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES AND GOALS FOR THE BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MAJOR
Although the Business Administration major is tailored to the interests of the student, all Business Administration majors are expected to demonstrate skill development in the following areas:
1. Self-knowledge and awareness
2. Problem solving and decision making skills
3. Oral communication skills
4. Written communication skills Interpersonal communication skills
5. Technical skills to solve business problems and make decisions
6. Knowledge of and ability to examine ethical considerations in business

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MINOR
Susan Mudrick, M.A., MBA, Assistant Dean

The minor in business administration provides Arts and Sciences majors with a broad exposure to all the different areas of business. It complements the liberal arts background with knowledge and skills that can be applied to careers in all types of organizations.

This minor is not available to students in the School of Business.

REQUIREMENTS
- Required for Minor in Business Administration: 6 courses
  - BUS 100 or BUS 101
  - ECN 150
  - Four courses* from the following: BUS 101, BUS 203, BUS 204, BUS 205, BUS 206, BUS 303

*ECN 150 and BUS 100 or 101 should be taken prior to the other four courses.
BUS 101 is a prerequisite to BUS 206.

Sophomore standing is a prerequisite for 200-level courses.
BUS 100 (S)
BUSINESS PERSPECTIVES
4 credits
This freshman course is integrative, addressing business processes at an introductory level. It uses a real company and a real industry sector to provide students with an understanding about how “business” really works, and what “business” really is. The course has as its final product a business plan written by each team and presented to a panel of business executives for their evaluation. It emphasizes cross-disciplinary experiential learning, group dynamics, and personal interaction with faculty of the School of Business, Integrated Science, Business and Technology (ISBT), and business executives and entrepreneurs in a small-class environment. Students are introduced to team-building, entrepreneurship, and business plans at the beginning of their academic program in order to build and develop their skills over the next three years. Students should take this course as early on as possible. Generally the course is not open to seniors.

BUS 101 (F, S)
INTRODUCTION TO FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING
3 credits
The course introduces financial reporting, focusing on the fundamental principles of recording business transactions and the presentation and interpretation of corporate financial information. Topics include an overview of financial reporting and the accounting cycle, accounting and reporting operating, investing and financing activities of a business.

BUS 150 (F, S)
PRESENTATION SKILLS FOR BUSINESS
2 credits
Focuses on the skills needed to link oral communication with the ability to work effectively in the current organizational environment. This course is based on the understanding that content and effective presentation of material are equally important in the understanding of communication. Active participation through oral presentations on current business topics is required. Students will make use of computer-based presentation technology.

BUS 202 (F, S)
DESCRIPTIVE AND PREDICTIVE ANALYTICS
3 credits
This course explain what happened and what will happen in business organizations using basic statistical methods relevant to descriptive and predictive analytics. The availability of massive amounts of data and technologies to process these data enables business organizations to use analytical approaches to decision-making. Descriptive analytics is the use of data to find out what has happened in the past or is currently happening; statistical techniques include descriptive statistics and visualization. Predictive analytics is the use of data to find out what could happen in the future; statistical techniques include regression analysis. This course will cover these techniques, descriptive statistics, visualization, and regression analysis, with emphasis on problem-solving and decision-making. This course will also cover probability, probability distributions, and statistical inference. Students will perform data analysis using statistical software packages.

PREREQUISITE: MTH 114.

BUS 203 (F, S)
ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOR AND SKILL DEVELOPMENT
3 credits
This course examines the behavior of individuals and groups in organizations, with the goal of understanding performance in the new workplace. It is designed to enhance the career potential of people with management and team leadership responsibilities in all areas of business. Topics include: motivation, theories and practice of leadership, individual and group decision making, conflict resolution, communication, international aspects of organizational behavior, perception, individuality, working in groups and teams, and ethical issues of organizational life. The course also emphasizes interactive and experiential learning to demonstrate the issues of organizational behavior. Through active participation, students will develop skills in leadership, communication, negotiation, teamwork, and group decision-making. Career awareness and skill assessment will be done through brief lectures, personal inventories, and career planning experiences.

BUS 204 (F, S)
PRINCIPLES OF MARKETING WITH APPLICATIONS
3 credits
An overview of marketing concepts and principles applicable to business and other organizations. These include: factors influencing the marketing environment and buyer behavior; market segmentation and targeting; product development, pricing, promotion and distribution to satisfy the needs of selected target markets. Approximately one-third of the course is dedicated to planning and to applying marketing-based concepts to profit and non-profit enterprise situations.

BUS 205 (F, S)
BUSINESS SYSTEMS FOR ANALYTICS
3 credits
This course studies how business systems work and examines the challenge that confronts all organizations in the information age. The challenge is to use its three most important resources, information, information technology (IT) and people, to provide perfect service at the customer moment of value. To meet this challenge, the course identifies the IT systems and strategies organizations can utilize to process data into information and knowledge. The course also investigates database and decision support technologies organizations employ to build IT systems. Furthermore, the course develops a comprehensive framework for planning, developing and managing IT systems to achieve competitive advantage. The concepts, models, and frameworks are derived from both academic and professional sources. Teams of students apply the concepts, models and frameworks to the analysis of real-world cases in a variety of industries, such as, construction, global transportation, health care, homeland security, hospitality and tourism, and manufacturing.

BUSINESS SYSTEMS AND ANALYTICS

FACULTY
Madjid Tavana, Ph.D., Chair

PROFESSORS: Tavana
ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: Kennedy, Szabant
ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: Gonzalez, Puranam

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM

The Business Systems and Analytics program, which reflects an emerging trend in business, will provide students with a practical and theoretical understanding of applying tools for information systems and analytics to enhance effective and informed problem solving and decision making. Business Systems and Analytics integrates technology and quantitative methods to capture data reliably and create relevant information for decision making that yields strong organization performance and sustained competitiveness in the global business environment. The application of business systems and analytics is essential in all areas of business, including human resource management, financial management, consumer behavior, relationship management, sales and marketing, risk management, real estate investment, and supply chain management.

In the information age, professionals entering the marketplace require specialized training and education in problem solving, creative thinking, analytical skills, organizational skills, computer skills, and communication. These are the skills that the Business Systems and Analytics major will develop. The applied nature of the Business Systems and Analytics discipline suggests a critical link with the practicing professional community. This relationship is established and maintained within the Business Systems and Analytics program through the use of real-world projects, internships, cooperative education, and classroom presentations by practicing professionals. These activities will provide students with a forum for networking and exploring career opportunities.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Business Systems and Analytics (BSA) Department is to advance the knowledge and promote the use of information systems and business analytics for informed and effective problem-solving and decision-making. Through its faculty, curriculum, students, department sponsored activities, and partnerships with the alumni and business community, the BSA major seeks to provide a value-added experience for students by communicating and demonstrating the importance of and the need for information systems and business analytics knowledge and skills in the workplace.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES AND GOALS FOR THE BUSINESS SYSTEMS AND ANALYTICS DEPARTMENT

USING DATA AND TECHNOLOGY

BSA Learning Goal 1: To use analytic methods and techniques to drive effective, data-driven solutions to business problems and decisions.

BSA Learning Objective: Students will demonstrate the ability to perform analysis of data using various analytic techniques and interpret results to solve business problems and make informed business decisions.

- Courses in the Core Curriculum that serve as foundation: BUS 202, BUS 304
- Courses in the Major that serve to build competency: BSA 302, BSA 420, BSA 480

BSA Learning Goal 2: To use information systems and technologies to drive effective, data-driven solutions to business problems and decisions.

BSA Learning Objective: Students will demonstrate the ability to use data management tools and technologies to improve organizational support of data-driven solutions to business problems and decisions.

- Courses in the Core Curriculum that serve as foundation: BUS 205
- Courses in the Major that serve to build competency: BSA 410, BSA 420, BSA 480

CRITICAL THINKING AND PROBLEM SOLVING

BSA Learning Goal 3: To solve business problems and make business decisions with information systems and analytics tools and technologies.

BSA Learning Objective: Students will demonstrate the ability to formulate problems and develop and apply data-driven solutions to business problems and decisions using information systems and analytics tools and technologies.

- Courses in the Core Curriculum that serve as foundation: BUS 202, BUS 205, BUS 304
- Courses in the Major that serve to build competency: BSA 302, BSA 410, BSA 420, BSA 480

COMMUNICATION SKILLS

BSA Learning Goal 4: To effectively communicate the results of analytic solutions to business problems and decisions.
BSA Learning Objective: Students will demonstrate the ability to effectively convey, through oral and written communication, the results of analytic solutions to business problems and decisions.

- Courses in the Core Curriculum that serve as foundation: BUS 202, BUS 205, BUS 304
- Courses in the Major that serve to build competency: BSA 302, BSA 410, BSA 420, BSA 480

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

BSA 260, 360, 460 (F, S, Summer)
PART-TIME INTERNSHIP IN BUSINESS SYSTEMS AND ANALYTICS
3 credits
Part-time, generally non-paid employment in a company or organizational setting to provide on-the-job training. Involves appropriate job-related learning assignments under faculty supervision. The position must be approved by the Department. Consult the Associate Director for Experiential Education in the La Salle University Career Center before registering or for further information. An internship counts as an elective and not as a course in the major. Grading for internships is on a letter grade, i.e., not pass/fail, basis. The number 360 is used if taken in junior year and 460 if taken in senior year.

PREREQUISITE: 2.5 MINIMUM GPA, COMPLETION OF BUS 205, AND PREFERABLY AN UPPER-LEVEL MAJOR COURSE OR PERMISSION OF THE ASSISTANT DEAN.

BSA 302 (F)
APPLIED REGRESSION MODELING AND VISUALIZATIONS
3 credits
This course is a data-driven, applied course focusing on the analysis of data using regression models and visualization techniques. It emphasizes applications to the analysis of business data and makes extensive use of computer statistical packages. Topics include simple and multiple linear regression, residual analysis and other regression diagnostics, model selection, classification (logistic regression), exploratory graphic techniques in modeling, and design principles for creating meaningful displays of data to facilitate decision making. All topics are illustrated on real-world data sets obtained from various disciplines to include accounting, finance, management, sales and marketing, operations, and risk management.

PREREQUISITE: BUS 202 OR EQUIVALENT.

BSA 350 (F, S, Summer)
COOPERATIVE EDUCATION (JUNIOR STANDING)
3 credits
This is a full-time, paid, approximately four-month assignment in a cooperating firm. Involves job-related learning under faculty supervision. The position must be approved by the Business Systems and Analytics Department. For registration information, students in the Business Scholars Co-op Program should consult with the Director of the program, and students who are not in the Business Scholars Program should consult with the Associate Director for Experiential Education in the La Salle University Career Center. A co-op counts as a free elective and not as a course in the major. Grading for co-ops is on a pass/fail basis (grading for internships is on a letter grade, i.e., not pass/fail, basis); the faculty member who is supervising the experience has the discretion as to whether to roster it as a co-op or internship. Students in the Business Scholars Co-op Program must take it pass/fail.

PREREQUISITES: 2.5 MINIMUM GPA (HIGHER FOR STUDENTS IN THE BUSINESS SCHOLARS CO-OP PROGRAM) AND COMPLETION OF BUS 205 AND PREFERABLY AN UPPER-LEVEL MAJOR COURSE.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP MINOR

FACULTY

Frank Mallon (Economics Department)
Steven Melick (La Salle Center for Entrepreneurship)

The entrepreneurship minor is available to all undergraduate students in the University, regardless of their major. This is an interdisciplinary, tailored program that will include a range of business and non-business electives for students to complete in order to obtain a well-rounded academic and hands-on experience toward their specific career interests. Students interested in starting a business someday, joining an existing family-run business, or becoming more entrepreneurial in their careers working for another company will earn the confidence to think and act while learning how to assemble the tools and resources to be successful in their ventures.

REQUIREMENTS

■ Required for Minor in Entrepreneurship: 6 courses
  - ENT 201 Experiential Introduction to Entrepreneurship
  - ENT 301 Entrepreneurial Applications
  - Four Controlled Electives: a combination of business and non-business courses mutually determined between the student and program adviser geared to meet the specific needs of the student’s career path. Business majors may take no more than two business electives; non-business majors must take a minimum of two business electives.

Interested students must contact a program administrator to determine the Controlled Electives approved for each of them. The student will also be required to conduct an interview with an entrepreneur in his or her field of study to make those course recommendations.

NOTE: ISBT 335 may be substituted for ENT 201, and ISBT 334 may be substituted for ENT 301.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

ENT 201 (formerly BUS 170)
EXPERIENTIAL INTRODUCTION TO ENTREPRENEURSHIP
3 credits

This course seeks to help students identify and exercise their latent entrepreneurial spirit. This course differs from most other courses in that the primary goal is not merely the acquisition of knowledge and the primary form of instruction is not lecture-based. Instead, this course provides students with an opportunity to develop skills such as creative thinking, opportunity identification, problem solving, communication, comprehensive business planning and task execution, leadership, and collaboration.

For each semester this course is offered, the class will work collectively on a project that addresses a problem or opportunity in the market. These opportunities can exist in existing enterprises (as in a way of doing something better), an unmet market need, new product innovation, or a venture in social entrepreneurship.

ENT 301
ENTREPRENEURIAL APPLICATIONS—CAPSTONE EXPERIENCE
3 credits

This course will focus on the delivery of a thorough and detailed business plan of each student’s concept or in conjunction with an existing enterprise. Work will be largely independent on this project, though supervised regularly by faculty and through interim presentations to the class.

Students will also be expected to participate in a range of entrepreneurship exploration discussions that may be relevant to their field of study or interests. These special interest tracks will delve deeper into the challenges and key business areas that are important to that type of venture or enterprise. The goal of this approach is to provide education around specific business principles that are important across all businesses, while broadly considering the needs of non-business major students who are seeking advice and guidance on business areas relevant to their interests.

The format of this course is 50% instructional, 25% lab, and 25% special topics research. Students will be expected to complete reflective papers following lab and special topics research along with deliverables outlined in support of their own planned or envisioned ventures.

PREREQUISITES: ENT 201 OR ISBT 333 OR BUSINESS MAJOR JUNIOR STATUS.

ENT 354 (CROSS-LISTED WITH MGT 354)
GROWING A BUSINESS: ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND SMALL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT
3 credits

The actual art and practice of managing a small enterprise. Concepts and methods for decision making and being competitive. Actual cases with live situations and outside speakers from all areas—business, government, and organized labor—impinging on the small entrepreneur today.

PREREQUISITES: ENT 201 AND ENT 301 OR BUS 101 AND BUS 208 OR ISBT 333 AND ISBT 334.
FINANCE

FACULTY
Jan Ambrose, Ph.D., Chair

PROFESSORS EMERITUS: Kane, McNichol
PROFESSORS: Barenbaum, Buch, Schubert
ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: Ambrose, Cooper
ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: Radetskiy

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM

Finance plays a central and critical role in the functioning of the economy. All enterprises (for-profit, nonprofit, and government) need to finance their strategic undertakings as well as their ongoing operations. Individuals, likewise, need to plan for important future events (e.g., financing their children’s education, weddings, and retirement). The study of finance provides students with the knowledge and tools necessary to work and thrive in today’s dynamic global financial environment.

Students of finance typically follow career paths in financial management (such as working in the finance department of a corporation or government unit or working in a consulting firm), investments (such as brokerage, portfolio management, or security analysis), or financial services (such as working in a bank or an insurance company).

The curriculum of the Finance Department is uniquely designed to meet the needs of students wishing to pursue any of these career paths by offering three different track options within the finance major: the Managerial Finance (MGF) track, the Investment and Financial Analysis (IFA) track, and the Risk Management (RM) track. Students selecting the IFA track commit to preparing for the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) professional designation exam at the end of their senior year.

Understanding the importance of linking theory and practice, the Department recommends that students consider joining Gamma Iota Sigma (the Risk Management and Insurance Club) and/or the Investment Club (in which students manage an actual investment fund). In addition, we advise that, during their University years, students strongly consider undertaking an internship or co-op.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Finance Department—in concert with the missions of the University and the School of Business—is to prepare students for a purposeful life by integrating Lasallian values with current financial management theory and practice. Through its curriculum and interactions with faculty and the external business community, the Finance major will provide students with an educational experience that emphasizes the sound fundamental financial concepts necessary for success in business and for preparing them to begin a meaningful career upon graduation.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES AND GOALS FOR THE FINANCE DEPARTMENT

1. To understand the nature of firm value and maximization of shareholder wealth.
   Outcome: demonstrate the ability to calculate and interpret MVA and EVA.

2. To understand basic financial securities, valuation models, and the trade-off between risk and return.
   Outcome: demonstrate the ability to apply appropriate valuation models in the calculation of stock and bond values and/or expected yields and to interpret the results.

3. To understand capital budgeting techniques and discounted cash flow analysis.
   Outcome: demonstrate the ability to estimate cash flows, apply the appropriate capital budgeting method(s) and interpret the results.

4. To understand capital structure concepts and their effect on firm value.
   Outcome: demonstrate the ability to calculate and interpret the weighted average cost of capital and various measures of leverage.

5. To understand how uncertainty and risk can be managed with forecasting and sensitivity analysis to improve decision making.
   Outcome: demonstrate the ability to forecast and interpret financial projections under varying assumptions.

REQUIREMENTS

- Required for Major in Finance: 5 courses

Managerial and Financial Analysis (MGF) track:
  - FIN 304, 314, and 403

Every business is a global business in the 21st century. From the smallest e-commerce entrepreneur to the multinational conglomerate with subsidiaries on six continents, every business today has the potential to expand its reach beyond a local operation and capitalize on emerging opportunities, no matter where it is.

International business majors learn how to think globally about the business world. A fundamental truth is that while business principles may be universal, the successful application of principles in global markets today often requires local knowledge and a heightened cultural sensitivity.

To major in international business at La-Salle, you must meet the requirements of either a second major (this can be outside the School of Business) or a minor in Risk Management and Insurance (RMI). Students with a second major outside the School of Business must fulfill all business core, math, economics and psychology/sociology courses that are required of business majors. A second major in a functional business area, such as accounting, marketing and finance, is important for an initial career placement and is emphasized more in the early stages of business careers. International business skills and knowledge are generally utilized after mastering these functional skills.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Swee-Lim Chia, Ph.D., Program Director

REQUIREMENTS

■ Required for Major in International Business: 4 courses (5 for RMI Minors) plus International Experience(s) as follows:

Four Courses—3 from Category A and 1 from Category B, or 4 from Category A:

Category A:
- BUS 300
- ECN 331
- FIN 403
- MGT 356
- MKT 305
- Any School of Business-sponsored travel study course

Category B:
- ECN 276 (cross-listed as HIS/POL 276)
- ECN 330
- ECN 332 (cross-listed as HIS/POL 332)
- ECN 335
- POL 240
- POL 341
- EDC 218

These courses can be counted toward either the primary major or the international business major, but not both. Management and leadership majors need eight courses altogether (four in management and leadership and four in international business). Business systems and analytics, finance, and marketing majors need nine courses altogether (five in their primary major and four in international business). Accounting majors need 12 courses altogether (eight in accounting and four in international business).

International Experience(s) Requirement can be met by any of the following*:
- Study abroad
- Two travel study courses (these can be business or non-business courses)
- An approved internship/co-op in another country
- One travel study course plus a domestic co-op or internship with a significant international component

*Other significant international experience may be considered upon application to the Program Director.

*RMI minors take three from A and two from B, or four from A and one from B.
The Pre-Law Program is centralized for the University under the direction of the Political Science Department.

Law courses may be taken as electives. While there is no pre-law major, certain of these courses may be recommended for pre-law students by the Coordinator.

Sophomore standing is a prerequisite for all 300- and 400-level courses.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

LAW 300 (F)
APPROACHES TO THE LAW OF CONTRACTS

The course also incorporates practical experience on reading, interpreting, drafting, and negotiating contracts. This course is open to all majors on campus.

BUS 303 (F, S)
LEGAL AND ETHICAL ENVIRONMENT OF BUSINESS
3 credits

A study of the American legal system exploring how courts decide cases and the values that play a role in such adjudication. The nature, formation, and application of law to individuals and business. The development of law, with emphasis on the Constitution, personal and business torts, the employment relationship, discrimination, international legal perspectives, and an exploration of legal ethics and the ethics of corporations.
MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

FACULTY
Lynn Miller, Ph.D., Chair

PROFESSORS: Fornaciari, Meisel, Miller, Seltzer (Emeritus), Smither, Van Buskirk
ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: Walsh (Emeritus)
ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: Bruce (Dean Emeritus), Gauss (Emeritus), Plump, Reardon

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM

The Management and Leadership program focuses on developing work-related interpersonal competencies that have been found to be highly predictive of employability and career success across industries. Students in this major learn professional skills such as how to facilitate discussions and lead team projects, correct problem behaviors, keep employees motivated, conduct employment interviews and performance appraisals, address conflict, handle negotiations, and argue persuasively. Unique to this major are two assessment workshops in which students are observed as they confront common management challenges; afterwards, students review video recordings of themselves and receive personalized feedback to create plans for self-development.

While the Management and Leadership major focuses on developing broad competencies that have been found to be essential for career success, developing distinctive capabilities through the in-depth study of a second discipline can also enhance the likelihood of a successful career and fulfilling personal life. The Management and Leadership major therefore requires students to complete either a second major or a minor (either within or outside of the School of Business). Students who major in non-business fields have the option of completing a minor in Management and Leadership.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Management and Leadership Department is to enable graduates to distinguish themselves by demonstrating extraordinary team, management, and ethically-grounded leadership skills throughout their professional careers.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES AND GOALS FOR THE MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP DEPARTMENT

Upon completion of the Management and Leadership program, students will be able to demonstrate:

1. effective influence skills (e.g., upward influence, persuasive presentation, coaching, and negotiation)
2. effective supervisory skills (e.g., design and conduct employment interviews, assess performance, and conduct performance feedback sessions)
3. effective skills in team settings (e.g., facilitate discussion, tactfully challenge others)

REQUIREMENTS

■ 4 courses in Management and Leadership:
  • MGT 311
  • MGT 312
  • MGT 411
  • One additional three-credit MGT course other than an internship or co-op
  • Completion of either a minor (other than MKT or BUS) or a second major. (The Chair of the Management and Leadership department will serve as the faculty advisor to students who choose to complement the MGTL major with a minor outside of the School of Business. This is to ensure that requirements for the minor are met prior to graduation.)

■ Required for Minor in Management and Leadership (not available to students in the School of Business): 6 courses.
  • BUS 203
  • MGT 311
  • MGT 312 or 411
  • Choose two of the following: BUS 100, BUS 101, BUS 303
  • CHOOSE ONE OTHER THREE-CREDIT MGT COURSE (MAY INCLUDE THE OTHER OF MGT 312 OR MGT 411, BUT NOT AN INTERNSHIP)

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM

Many people believe that marketing consists only of advertising and personal selling. Although marketing includes these activities, the purpose of marketing in an organization is much broader; the purpose of marketing is to create and retain satisfied customers. Marketing begins by understanding consumer behavior, discovering customers’ needs and then developing programs to satisfy those needs.

The decisions made in creating marketing programs are essential to the success of any organization. Which customer groups shall we serve? What kind of products and services will we offer? How should they be priced, promoted, and distributed to the customer? The fundamental marketing concept is that organizations can achieve their goals by satisfying consumer needs.

The Marketing curriculum at La Salle University gives students the knowledge and skills they need to succeed in a variety of marketing related fields. Marketing classes and projects develop such skills as making effective presentations, creating advertising campaigns, analyzing consumer behavior, and conducting marketing research studies. In all Marketing classes, an emphasis is placed on involving students with real-world problems that will advance their ability to make sound business decisions.

Marketing majors are encouraged to participate in the Marketing Department’s Internship Program. Here, participants work part-time in a marketing position under faculty supervision. The Department of Marketing has a tradition of interacting with students as they make both academic and career decisions. Marketing graduates may work in business, government, or non-profit organizations. Those who major in marketing are prepared to enter a wide variety of career fields; these include personal selling, retailing, public relations, advertising, direct marketing, marketing research, and marketing management.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Marketing Department—consistent with the missions of the University and the Business School—is to prepare our students for a life of purpose upon graduation. Through the active mentoring of our faculty and alumni, students will develop the necessary critical and analytical marketing skills to enter the marketing profession with the highest ethical sensibilities.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES AND GOALS FOR THE MARKETING DEPARTMENT

1. Our graduates will be able to understand the central role and contribution of marketing in creating value in both for-profit and non-profit enterprises.

2. Our graduates will be able to understand the key elements of buyer behavior and the selling process in formulating a professional sales presentation.

3. Our graduates will be able to design and implement marketing research studies utilizing both qualitative approaches, including the use of statistical packages such as SPSS for data analysis and interpretation.

4. Our graduates will be able to develop and implement marketing strategies using key concepts, such as segmentation, targeting, positioning, branding and buyer behavior.
