

D4650 LES DERNIER JOURS DU COLONEL SAVATH
(CAMBODIA, 1995)

Credits: director/writer, Norodom Sihanouk.

Cast: Kong Sophy, Mom Soth, Chhorn Torn.

Summary: War film set in Cambodia in 1975. On the eve of the fall of Phnom Penh in 1975, the Cambodian military abdicates its authority in a disastrous alliance with the Khmer Rouge against King Samdech Sihanouk. The story follows Col. Savath - who recognizes the folly of his commander, Gen. Nop, but is powerless to help him - and Savath's father, a retired doctor who returns to surgery only to face Pol Pot's soldiers, who massacre wounded soldiers in hospital beds and operating rooms. Incorporates newsreel footage of the Khmer Rouge.

No known reviews.