(FRANCE, 1967)

(Other titles: Two or three things I know about her)

Summary: Melodrama set in contemporary France. A series of episodes in one day in the life of Juliette Jeanson (Vlady). She is a working class housewife who lives in a suburban apartment complex outside Paris. Though she is a loving wife and mother she resorts to occasional prostitution to 'get along,' that is, to maintain a middle class life-style for her family. The Vietnam connections include radio broadcasts about Johnson's bombing of Hanoi and a dream related by Juliette's son in which two twins, North and South Vietnam, turn into one person.
