

G3960 THE GHOST WHISPERER (USA, 9/23/2005- ) [TV SERIES]

Series summary: Fantasy series set in contemporary California. Melinda Gordon (Hewitt) is a young newlywed with the ability to communicate with the earthbound spirits of people who have died and relay significant messages to the living.

Premier (9/23/2005)

Credits: director/writer, John Gray.

Cast: Jennifer Love Hewitt, Jim Clancy, Andrea Moreno, Wentworth Miller, Balthazar Getty.

Summary: A soldier killed in Vietnam (Miller) seeks Melinda's help in communicating with his surviving son (Getty).

Arthur, Kate. "CBS pilot draws them in" New York times (Sep 26, 2005), p. 2.

Bianculli, David. "'Ghost' star supplies sole visible asset" Daily news [New York] (Sep 23, 2005), p. 143.

Crews, Chip. "'Ghost whisperer': A sixth sense for what viewers like" Washington post (Sep 23, 2005), p. C1.

Gilbert, Matthew. "Sweet nothings in 'Ghost whisperer'" Boston globe (Sep 23, 2005), p. D8.

Lloyd, Robert. "Television & radio; The fall season; The dead have it tough too; Fortunately for them, a lively Jennifer Love Hewitt checks in as an otherworldly problem-solver in 'Ghost whisperer'" Los Angeles times (Sep 23, 2005), p. E29.

Lowry, Brian. "The ghost whisperer" Variety 400 (Sep 19-25, 2005), p. 75.

Martel, Ned. "She sees dead people, and offers them a sympathetic ear" New York times (Sep 23, 2005), p. E29.

Sherrow, Rita. "Jennifer Love Hewitt is medium rare in 'Ghost whisperer'" Tulsa world (Sep 30, 2005), p. S21.