

K5590 DIE KINDER (GREAT BRITAIN, 1990) [TV]

Credits: director, Rob Walker ; writer, Paula Milne.

Cast: Miranda Richardson, Frederic Forrest, Hans Kremer.

Summary: Television spy/thriller set in contemporary Great Britain and Germany. English mother Sidonie Reiger (Richardson) searches for her children, kidnapped by her ex-husband and taken to Germany where he is a member of the 'Red Liberation Front.' The man Sidonie hires to help her in her search is an ex-CIA agent and Vietnam vet named Lomax (Forrest).

Kogan, Rick. "Television - crafty composition: PBS' 'Die Kinder' is a tense, measured thriller" Chicago tribune (Apr 11, 1991), Tempo, p. 13.

Leonard, John. "Court and spark" New York 24 (Apr 1, 1991), p. 68+ [2 p.]

O'Connor, John J. "Review/television: 'Mystery' goes political with a six-part thriller" New York times 140 (Mar 28, 1991), p. C11.

Rosenberg, Howard. "PBS serves up a pair of jems" [Die Kinder and House of cards] Los Angeles times (Mar 28, 1991), Calendar, p. 1.

Roush, Matt. "'Mystery!' treads a dark path" USA today (Mar 27, 1991), p. 3D.

Siegel, Ed. "PBS gets hip to contemporary life" Boston globe (Mar 20, 1991), Living, p. 67.

_____. "Quality and the single sponsor" Boston globe (Mar 31, 1991), Arts and film, p. 59.