

M2400 MAKE LOVE NOT WAR : DIE LIEBESGESCHICHTE
UNSERER ZEIT (WEST GERMANY, 1968)

Credits: director, Werner Klett ; writer/novel (Die Flinte im Korne), Guenter Adrian.

Cast: Gibson Kemp, Claudia Bremer, Heinz-Karl Diesing, Joachim Pukass.

Summary: Melodrama set in contemporary Berlin. Brian (Kemp), an American soldier stationed in West Berlin, deserts his unit to avoid being sent to Vietnam. He meets and falls for Eva (Bremer) and they have a few days of happiness, overshadowed by fear of discovery. Eva confides her worries to a German friend. When a German taxi driver is killed by an unknown American soldier, Eva's friend reports Brian to the police and he is shot trying to escape them.

Hans. "Make love not war" Variety (Jun 26, 1968), p. 22.